

Quinta do Monte Xisto 2017 Douro

Old Douro hand João Nicolau Almeida's blend of Touriga Nacional and Touriga Francesa together with a little Sousão to be released in September 2019.

Deep crimson. Rich and ripe yet it finishes savoury. There is certainly a schist effect on the grainy dry finish. Pure Douro. Well done! Alcohol well disguised. Real energy here as well as all that ripeness – and not a little tannin but it's submerged by ripe fruit and the wine could already be enjoyed.

|               |                                  |
|---------------|----------------------------------|
| Producer      | João Nicolau de Almeida & Filhos |
| Appellation   | Douro                            |
| Region        | Douro                            |
| Country       | Portugal                         |
| Colour        | Red                              |
| Score         | 17                               |
| When to drink | 2019-2026                        |
| Published on  | 14 Aug 2019                      |
| Date tasted   | 9 Aug 2019                       |
| Reviewer      | Jancis Robinson                  |